

my house

lady who lives in the house sees you. Ruby says she's a witch!."

"Oh, sure."

"Then cross the road and walk to the left until you reach the wooden bridge over the creek. Cross the bridge then follow the path on the other side. If you skip you can hear your shoes clicking on the concrete. Stop when you get to the wattle tree with the seat under it. You might need a rest."

"I reckon! Is it much further?"

"OK!"

"We live in number 20. You might find it hard to see the number on our letterbox. There's a mess of jasmine covering the numbers. Look for the vacant block of land next door. I'll wait out the front. Got all that?"

"Easy peasy! I'm on my way!"

"Bye!"
